Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
Problem of the Week Announcement

Problem of the Week Each week, a problem will be posted on the department bulletin board and at the Math/CS Club web page:

<http://mathcs.holycross.edu/~ahwang/club/index.html>

The first Holy Cross student to present a correct solution to Professor Hwang wins (a tiny bit of) fame and a candy bar! Solutions may be handwritten or emailed in L^AT_EX format.

Happy solving!
